Sparta 69

SPARTA 69

McCONNELLSBURG HIGH SCHOOL McCONNELLSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA

There's a school in Fulton County,
A school we all love well;
And its sturdy sons and daughters,
Its virtues love to tell.
Sing it out among the high school,
Spread the tale with vim and might;
For McConnellsburg stands defended,
By the blue and by the white.

When at last our days are ended,
And our last exams we've passed;
We will say good-bye forever,
To our teachers, school, and class.
We will then take school day victories,
Into the world's grim fate and might;
And our victories will remind us,
Of the blue and of the white.

FOREWORD

Seconds . . . minutes . . . hours . . . time. Your time—our time. Using this as our theme, we will try to convey a small portion of the years spent here at MHS. We want you to be able to recapture and thus relive these moments—moments of victory and defeat, work and pleasure, anguish and joy.

Just as the jitterbug, bobby sox, and pullover sweater symbolized past generations, our cover serves as a symbol of our generation—our time—a time of psychedelic art, love power, and long hair.

But most of all we want you to realize that this is your time—a time for living—a time for life.

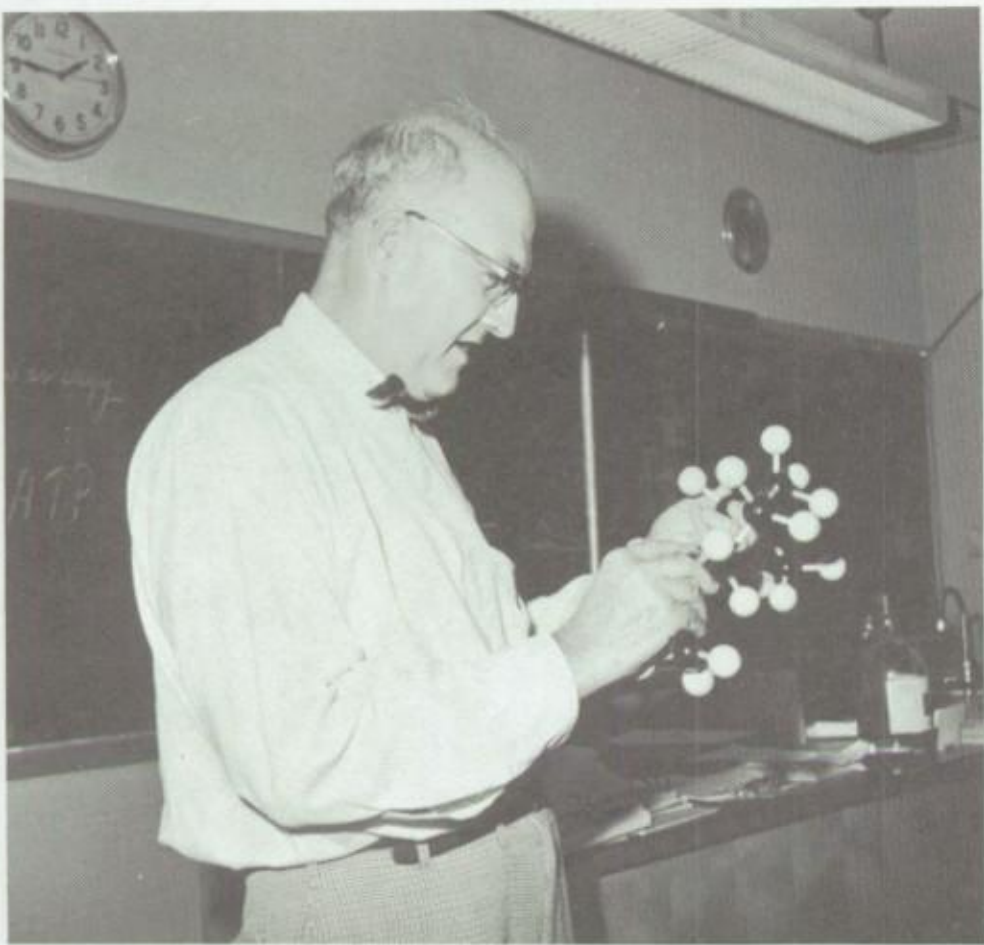

DEDICATION

Unlike past dedications which served to show appreciation and gratitude, we felt that it was not within our power to dedicate this book to any one person or persons. With so much help coming from our advisors and different faculty members we felt it was not possible to recognize any one member.

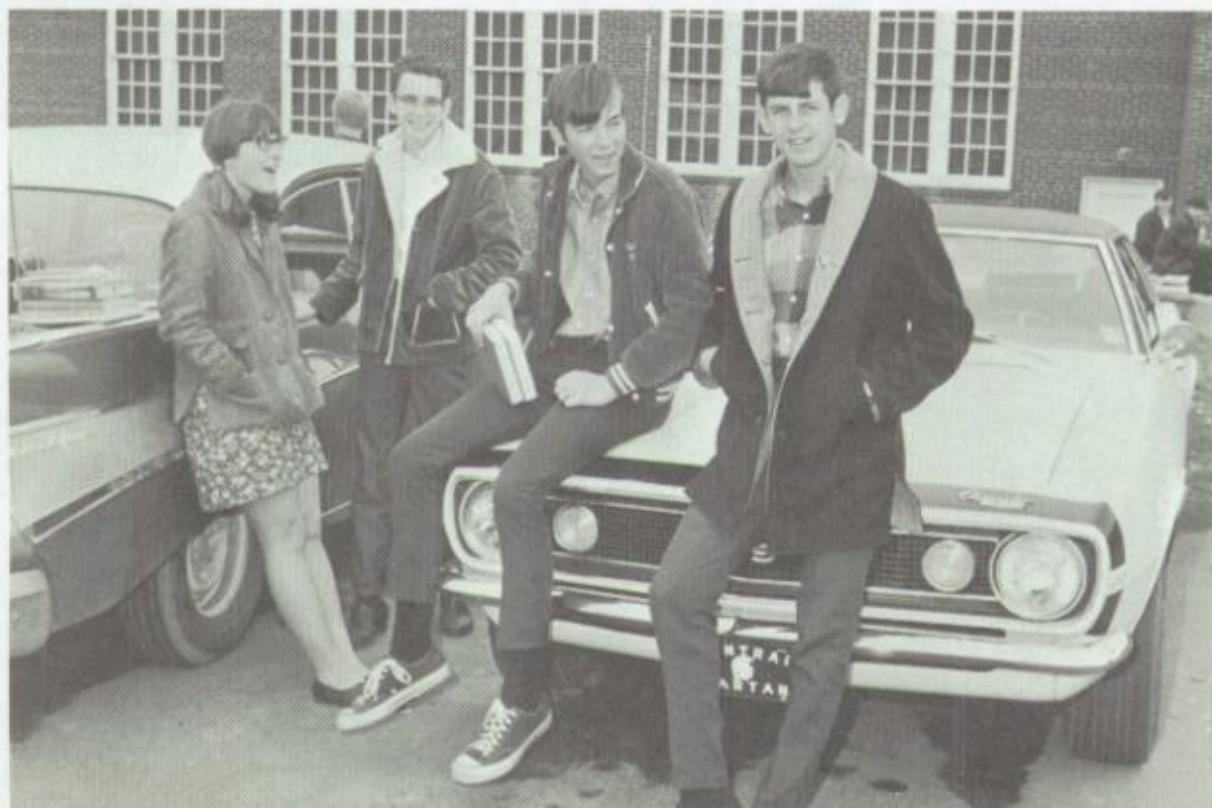

Instead, we dedicate the SPARTA 69 to our fellow students in the hope that it will encourage you to make this school—your school, to make this time—your time, in short, to make this life—your life.

This book is a tribute—a dedication—to the future graduates of McConnellsburg High School. It is dedicated to you!

TODAY IS THE TIME FOR LIVING
WE CANNOT RELIVE YESTERDAY'S PRECIOUS MOMENTS
OR UNDO YESTERDAY'S MISTAKES
WE CANNOT KNOW EXACTLY WHAT THE FUTURE HOLDS
OR WHAT WE SHALL BECOME
BUT WE CAN KEEP CHERISHED MEMORIES
AND PROFIT FROM OUR MISTAKES
AND WE CAN DIRECT OUR FUTURE
BY LIVING TODAY FOR A BETTER TOMORROW
TOMORROW'S MEMORIES ARE MADE TODAY
TOMORROW'S TRIUMPHS ORIGINATE TODAY
TODAY IS THE TIME FOR LIVING
(KALIDASHA, FIFTH CENTURY INDIAN POET)

CLASS HYMN

LET THERE BE PEACE ON EARTH

Let there be peace on earth
 And let it begin with me;
 Let there be peace on earth,
 The peace that was meant to be.
 With God as our Father,
 Brothers all are we.
 Let me walk with my brother,
 In perfect harmony.

Let peace begin with me.
 Let this be the moment now;
 With every step I take
 Let this be my solemn vow:
 To take each moment and live each moment
 In peace eternally;
 Let there be peace on earth
 And let it begin with me.

CLASS MOTTO

FORWARD EVER: BACKWARD NEVER

CLASS SONG

TURN, TURN, TURN

To everything "Turn, Turn, Turn"
 There is a season "Turn, Turn, Turn"
 And a time for each purpose under heaven.

A time to be born, a time to die,
 A time to rend, a time to sew,
 A time to heal, a time to kill,
 A time to laugh, a time to weep.

A time to build up, a time to tear down,
 A time to dance, a time to mourn,
 A time to cast away stones,
 A time to gather stones together.

A time of love, a time of hate,
 A time for war, a time for peace,
 A time to laugh, a time to cry,
 A time to reap, a time to plant.

A time to heal, a time to kill,
 A time to dance, a time to mourn,
 A time for war, a time for peace,
 I swear it's not too late.

PATRICIA MARIE ZEGER
1952-1967

Patricia Marie Zeger was killed in an auto accident on May 30, 1967. Although Pat was with us for only two years, she was an outstanding girl. She was known and loved for her quick wit and sparkling sense of humor. A sunny smile and ready laughter were her truest attributes. Active in Chorus, Nurses' Club, and F.H.A., Pat was always ready and willing to do whatever she could whenever the need arose. We all miss Pat but though she is gone, her memory will linger in the hearts of those who knew her. To know her was to love her.

CORONATION CLIMAXES

EXOTIC PROM EVENING

An oriental atmosphere was presented by the 1968 prom, SAYONARA. Prom night, April 20, found our gym transformed into an oriental garden. The walls were covered with cascades of flowing red streamers and the ceiling was transformed into a fiery red sky, spangled with a thousand golden stars. Scattered here and there were red and gold Ming Trees, poppies and chrysanthemums. Near the entrance was a winding stream, and spanning the stream was a small garden bridge. The music of the Jades further enhanced the exotic event.

At ten o'clock the Queen's coronation began. Five girls from the junior class plus two senior attendants, all accompanied by their escorts composed the court. From the five junior girls, Linda Seville was chosen queen. After taking her place at the throne, she was crowned by former queen Barb Decker. Linda and her escort then lead the queen's dance, Shangri-La.

It was a wonderful evening that passed with unbelievable speed. But however fleeting the moments, SAYONARA left those who attended with lifetime memories.

Jades entertain at "Sayonara".

Mike Stenger and Martha Cox enjoy exotic atmosphere.

Jim Hawbaker and Lee Ann Richards dance to music of Jades.

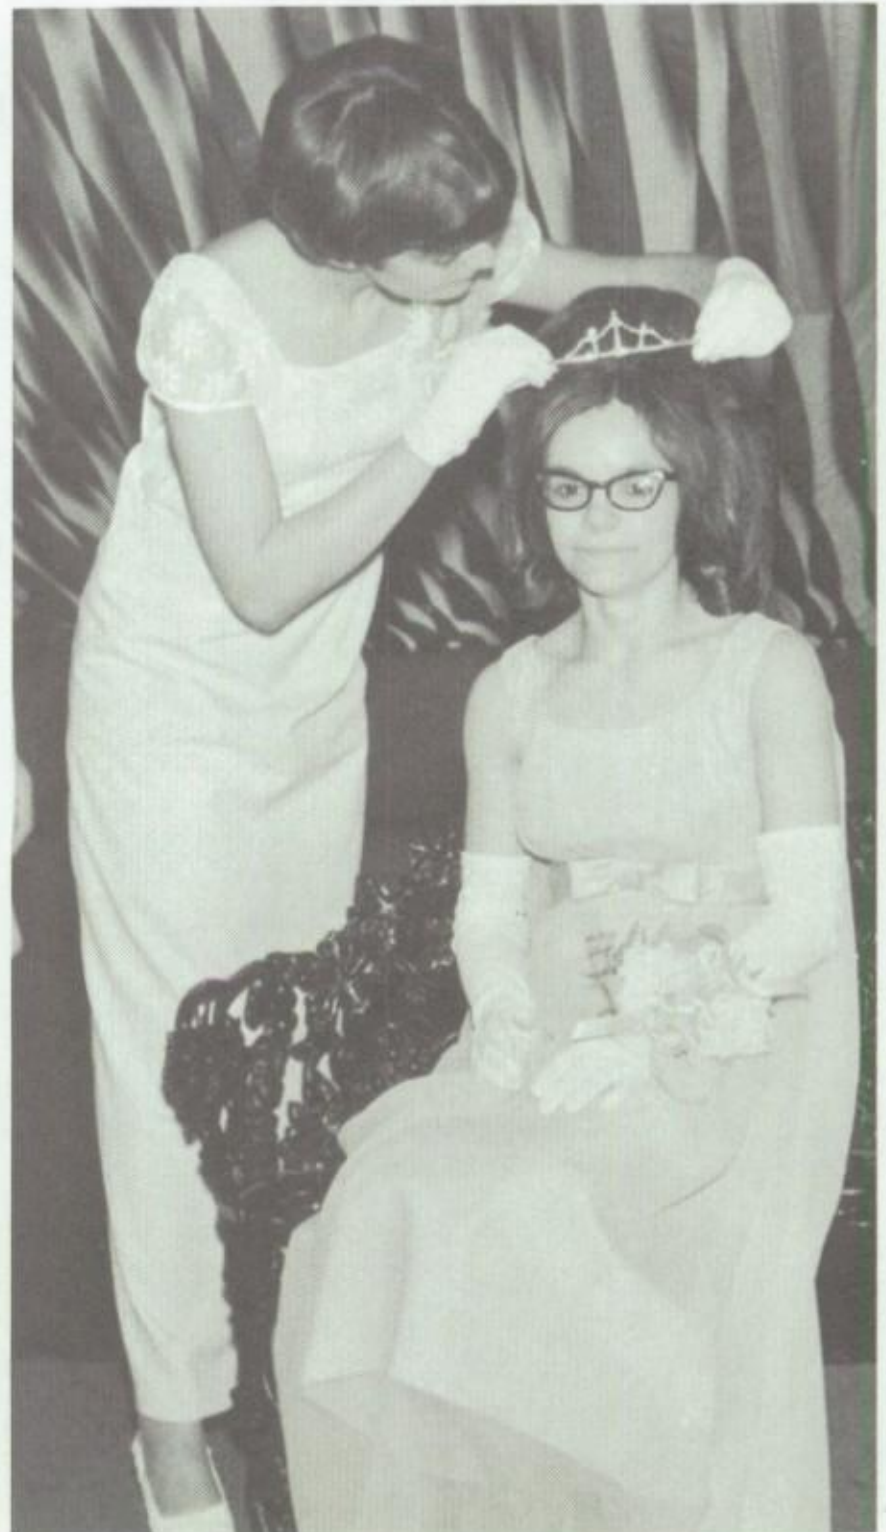

Refreshments welcome even at Prom.

Lord Loam: "I'm a chicketty chick chick—"

Poor Ernest.

The Rev. Treherne busily works on the hut.

Life for the perfect English family is disrupted when many of its members become shipwrecked on a desert island. Lord Loam, who always wished for equality between his family and servants, is made to see that there must always be a master. Strangely enough, the butler, Chichton, becomes head of the Loam household when the group is shipwrecked. After finally adjusting to their new way of life for several years, the family is rescued and must return to the fastidious English life once again.

Although satirical in many places, romance flourishes and humor prevails in this four act comedy, THE ADMIRABLE CRICHTON.

One of the most important decisions of the senior class is the election of its most outstanding members. Each and every member of the senior class is an outstanding student in his own way and, for this reason, this was a difficult decision to make. After careful deliberation on the part of seniors and chosen faculty members, nineteen were selected to represent the outstanding seniors for the class of '69.

GETTYSBURG

American History came alive for us on April 3, 1966. On that memorable day with Mr. Mills and Mr. Creager accompanying us, we, then Freshmen, departed for the battlegrounds of Gettysburg. Combining fun with education, it proved to be worthwhile and enjoyable for all. Gettysburg was truly a trip to be remembered.

Anyone who enjoys singing may become a member of one of the choruses. Each group meets twice a week to practice under the direction of Mr. Koehler. Two concerts, one at Christmas and one in the spring, are given.

This year, for the first time, a combined Christmas concert was given with the band. After presenting individual numbers, the two groups combined to do several songs.

Our band is composed of students who have a decided taste for music. Last year, with the help of the community, plus hoagie and peanut sales and festivals, they have been able to obtain new instruments and uniforms.

Due to Mr. Hartle's leadership and pride in his work, the band is now providing stiffer competition to its rivals. We now have a band of which the whole community can be proud.

COLOR GUARD

Our color guard is an important and necessary part of the appearance of the band. Since its expansion last year, the color guard has been made up of the two banner carriers, two gun bearers, one spear bearer, three flag bearers, and one sword bearer. The color guard is the first part of our band seen by the judges, and therefore its performance must create a favorable first impression.

MAJORETTES

Vickie Earley—Head Majorette.

A very eye-catching part of our band is its squad of majorettes. These girls work long and hard practicing snappy routines to perform at festivals and parades. Their activities include more than this, however. For the band's concerts, the girls decorate the gym and act as ushers. Without the skillful routines of the majorettes and the other help they offer, the band would not be what it is.

YEARBOOK STAFF

Advertising—Oscar Weller-Chairman, Linda Seville, Nancy Mellott.

Much time and thought have gone into the making of SPARTA 69. Creating a yearbook involved taking pictures, making layouts, writing copy, and much more. This year's yearbook staff has found that a lot of work was involved and a lot of headaches developed. Working steadily, but not always smoothly, they found satisfaction mingled with signs of relief during the production and completion of this book.

Without the help of many people, this yearbook could not have been published. Mrs. Elvey and Mr. Cordell gave up much free time to advise the editors. Jack Miller and Andrew's Portrait Studio were responsible for the photographs. The faculty and Mr. Creager cooperated as much as possible.

The yearbook, also, would not have been possible without the tremendous assistance from the staff and the many others who typed and helped in various ways.

Layout—Ella Mae Bivens, Clarence Souders—Chairman, Norman Hess, Judy Helman.

Literary—Dixie Merrell.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

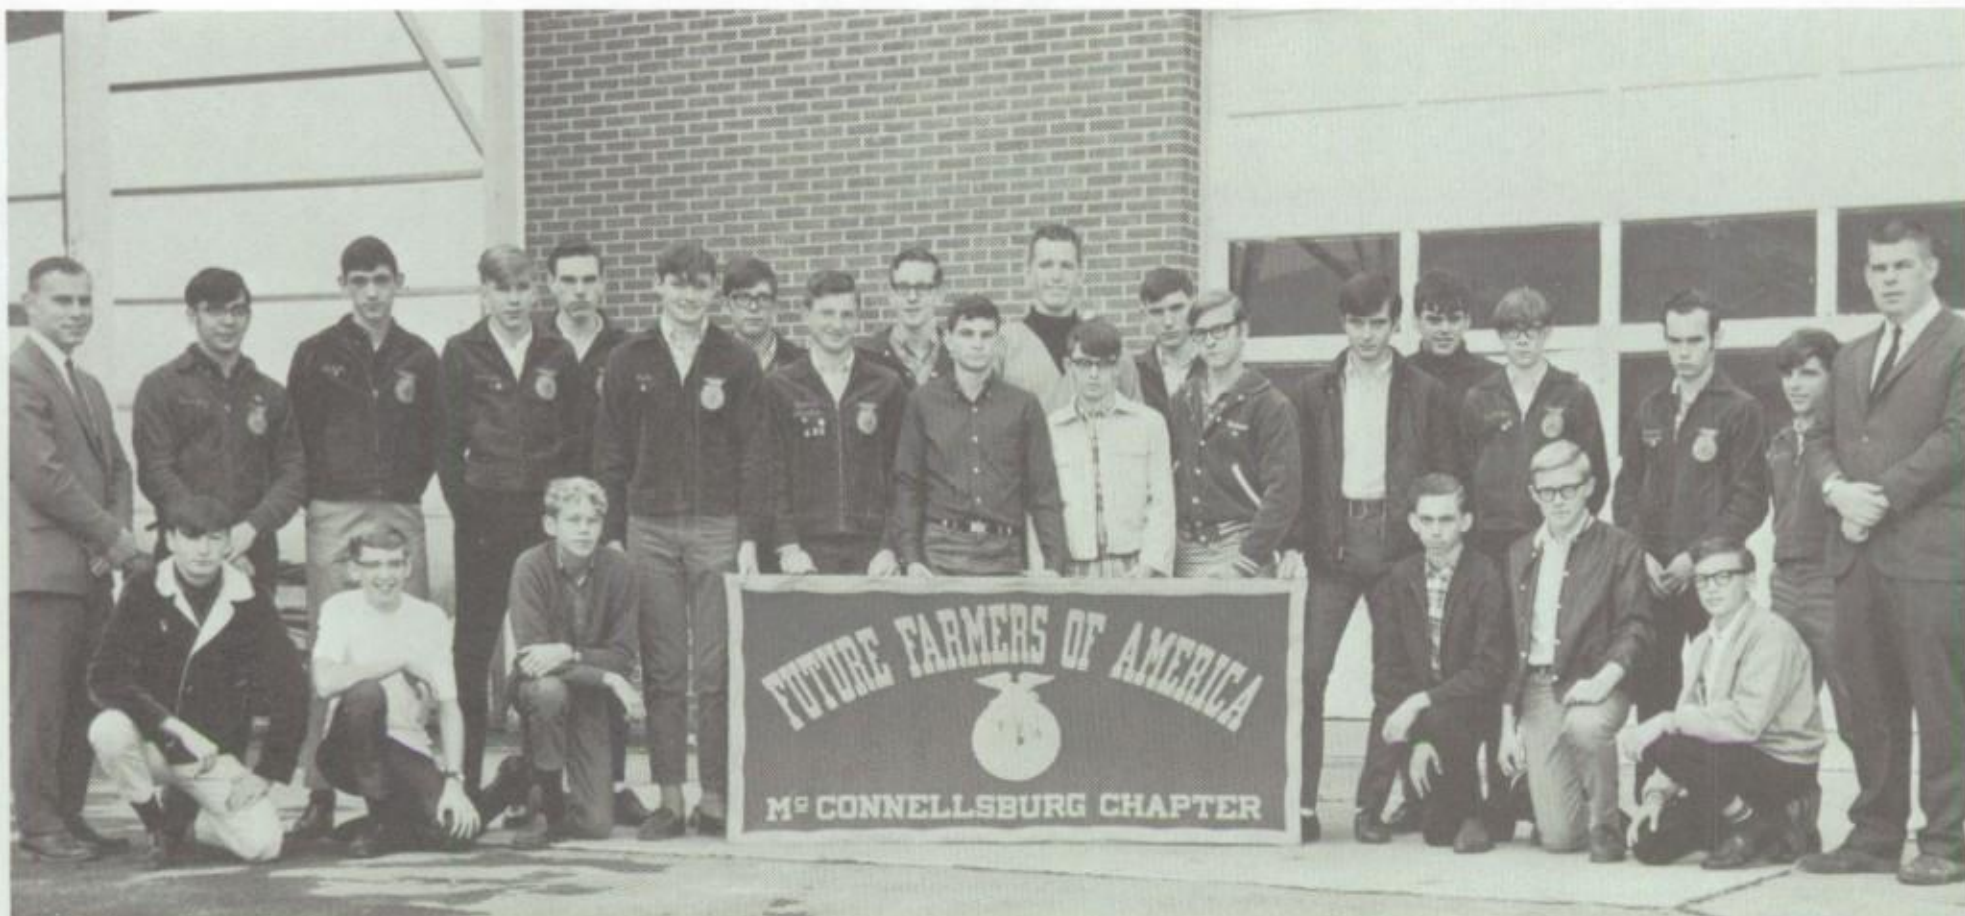

The F.H.A.'s main objective is to create and stimulate better homemaking. Cooking, sewing, decorating, and countless other practices are performed during the course of the year. Each year the club members attend the farm show and often participate in the demonstrations given there. They also organize and hold banquets for other clubs and groups in the community.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The F.F.A. is an educational organization designed to develop agricultural leadership. Members can be quickly identified by their blue corduroy jackets with their emblem. The boys learn facts concerning practical and scientific farming. They are encouraged to produce livestock and crops and to exhibit their projects at fairs.

CHESS CLUB

The Chess Club is an organization for those who enjoy the game of chess. The members meet during each activity period and diligently become involved in a game. One of the club's hopes for the future is to organize chess tournaments with neighboring schools' teams. In the meantime, intramural meets within the club itself prepare members for this future possibility.

The Journalism Club is one of the school's more newly formed organizations. Their main activity is the publishing of the school newspaper, THE SPARTAN INFORMER. Members gather news, write the articles, type and proofread, and make its layouts. This year, for the first time in several years, the paper was printed by a local newspaper office.

Selling THE SPARTAN INFORMER is just one of the many important facets of the Journalism Club.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Officers put letters on sign for which the Student Council bought night lights.

Besides promoting better student-faculty relations, the Student Council works for the betterment of the school. A Spartan head was painted on the gym floor and night lights were placed on the sign identifying MHS last year by its efforts. The Student Council presents films and assemblies and also sponsors buses to away basketball games. Last year, a student-faculty basketball game was held to help raise money for a Thanksgiving dinner for needy members of the community.

LIBRARY CLUB

Searching earnestly, two members of the Library Club perform one of its many functions.

The Library Club is made up of students who are willing to devote their free school time to working in the library. The members assist the librarian by tending the desk, helping other students find needed information, placing books on the shelves, and putting magazines away.

The club also plans to make trips to various nearby libraries.

The 400 Club is one organization to which not just anyone can belong. A student must obtain A's in four major subjects and A's and B's in the remaining ones. Achieving this isn't as easy as it sounds. To students who have only four major subjects, a B+ will destroy their chances.

Due to the limited space in the yearbook, only those students who were in the club three marking periods of last year are pictured.

Students from the business section of the senior class make up the Business Club. By hoagie sales and school dances, money is made for various projects. Their main activity is sponsoring a trip to the Ice Capades each winter.

NURSES' CLUB

By practicing on each other, the girls learn how to take a person's temperature and pulse.

Girls who are interested in the facets of nursing belong to the Nurses' Club. Speakers on nursing as a career or the workings of a hospital lecture at many meetings. At other meetings the group learns various nursing skills. Each year, the girls also tour some hospital in order to get an even better insight of what is really expected of a nurse.

The cheerleading squads strive to create school spirit, raise athletic support, and promote good sportsmanship within the school. Twice a week, the girls practice under the supervision of Mrs. Blevins. Their main goal is to cheer the teams on to victory.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

The JV team is a total of eighteen energetic boys who play a good game of basketball. Whether winning or losing, they practice good sportsmanship.

Scorekeeping is often a forgotten job. Both Mary, scorekeeper for the girls, and Greg, scorekeeper for the boys, know that it is difficult, but both do a good job.

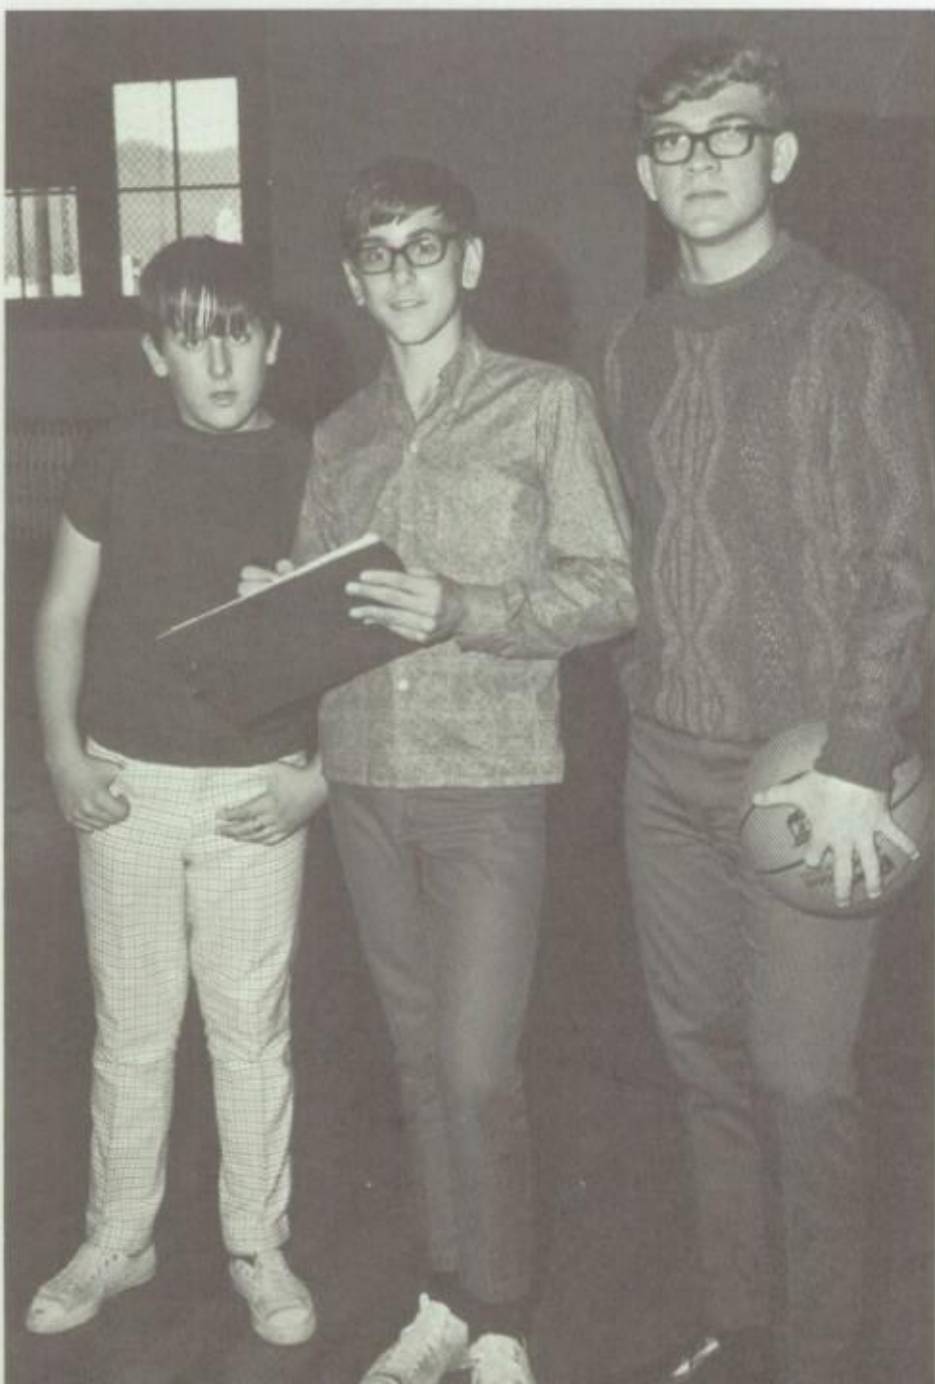

SCOREKEEPERS: Greg Gordon, Mary Jarrett.

Managers—Robin Fix, Dick Alloway, Oscar Weller.

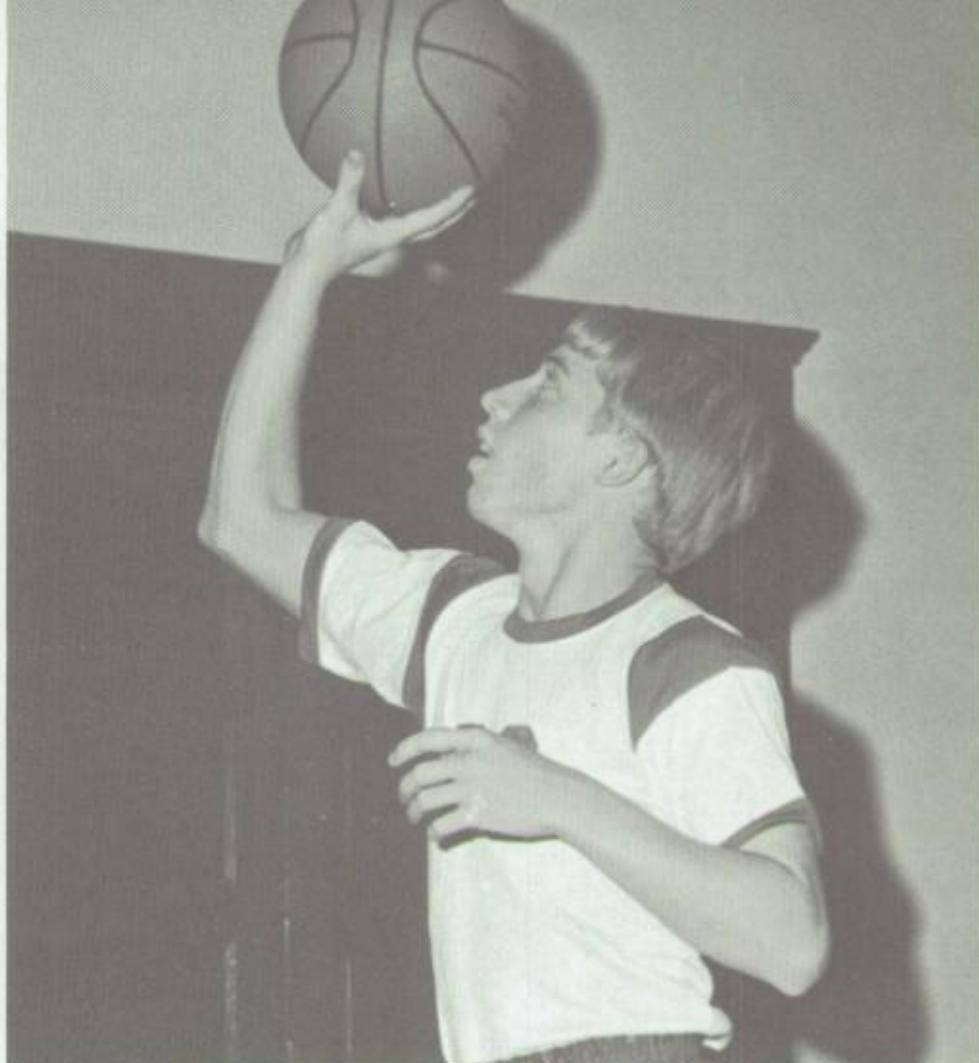

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The mighty Spartans returned this season with only two lettermen, but with the desire and determination to win. With each game throughout the season, the team exhibited the co-ordination and co-operation so greatly needed for a victory. Mingled with our victories were defeats but with each game, our boys displayed tremendous hustle regardless of the score.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Although basketball is the only sport offered to girls at MHS, it is very important to the school. With the coaching of Miss Cutchall and Mrs. Elvey, and the help of their manager, Mary Lou Shotts, the girls work hard to win every game they play. Even though they don't always succeed, their enthusiasm never wavers, and they go on to play better each game.

Kathy Snyder

The girls practice hard.

Managers: Kent Shimer, Ronnie Sowers

TRACK

Track shares the spring limelight with baseball, but nevertheless draws school attention. Track events include races over various distances, as well as relay and hurdle races. The field events include the broad jump, discus throw, and shot-put. It is hoped that soon more events can be added to this list. The team is coached by Mr. Cover who, judging by last year's team, obviously does a good job. Last year four boys participated in the district contest at Penn State after receiving first place in the district meet. They were Jeff Ott, Fred Mellott, Randy Keefer, and Duane Johnston. The quartet set a new school record for the mile relay of 3 minutes 39.2 seconds.

BASEBALL

Baseball, coached by Mr. Howells, rolls around in the spring. The team practices long and hard to achieve its goal, but somehow this year the boys caught spring fever. Win or lose, they always aim for their best and for good sportsmanship in our school.

SOCCER

Jim Hawbaker

During the fall of our school year, the sport's spotlight is on soccer. Braving freezing weather and muddy fields, our boys compete with soccer teams from the surrounding schools. To make a victory takes grim determination and courage and our boys are lacking in neither.

WITH TIME AS OUR THEME FOR THIS SPARTA 69, WE HAVE TRIED TO CONVEY LIFE AT MHS.
SOME OF US WILL BE BACK,
SOME OF US WON'T. NO ONE
CAN KNOW WHAT THE FUTURE
HOLDS OR WHAT HE SHALL
BECOME. BUT WE CAN LOOK BACK
ON THIS YEAR AND REMEMBER.
"TOMORROWS MEMORIES ARE MADE TODAY
TOMORROWS TRIUMPHS ORIGINATE TODAY
TODAY IS THE TIME FOR LIVING"
